Objectifs

SIPP 2013 is the second international seminar on plasma physics, after the success of SIPP 2011 organized by laboratories LENREZA and LRPPS of the UKMO. The aim is to bring together researchers, doctoral and students of masters and magisters. Two themes are proposed for the SIPP2013 :

A – Statistical properties in plasmas
B – Laser and spectroscopy in plasmas

This seminar will provide an update on the latest research in the areas covered both nationally and internationally. It also has a role to contribute to the training of young PhD students on the topics that are of interest to the scientific and industrial development of the country.

Important dates

- o 20 December 2012: Deadline for registration and communication abstract submission (according to template on website).
- o 10 January 2013: Acceptance notification to the authors.
- o 10 February 2013: Receipt of the final version of abstracts (according to template on website)
- o 11 – 14 March 2013 : SIPP'2013 seminar in the UKMO auditorium
